

1 Corinthians 7:1-16
“Five Questions on Sex and Marriage”

Introduction:

How are new Believers in Corinth to live out their new faith in light of the sexual immorality in Corinth?

This passage poses an extra challenge for two reasons:

- 1.
- 2.

Exposition: “In light of all the sexual immorality in Corinth...

Question #1: would it be more spiritual to avoid sex altogether?” (7:1-6)

Question #2: would it be more spiritual for those who are single to remain unmarried?” (7:7-9)

1 Corinthians 7:1-16
“Five Questions on Sex and Marriage”

Introduction:

How are new Believers in Corinth to live out their new faith in light of the sexual immorality in Corinth?

This passage poses an extra challenge for two reasons:

- 1.
- 2.

Exposition: “In light of all the sexual immorality in Corinth...

Question #1: would it be more spiritual to avoid sex altogether?” (7:1-6)

Question #2: would it be more spiritual for those who are single to remain unmarried?” (7:7-9)

Question #3: would it be more spiritual for married Believers to divorce?" (7:10-11)

Question #3: would it be more spiritual for married Believers to divorce?" (7:10-11)

Question #4: would it be more spiritual for a Believing spouse to divorce a non-Believing spouse?" (7:12-14)

Question #4: would it be more spiritual for a Believing spouse to divorce a non-Believing spouse?" (7:12-14)

Question #5: would it be more spiritual to coerce a non-Believing spouse to stay in a marriage?" (7:15-16)

Question #5: would it be more spiritual to coerce a non-Believing spouse to stay in a marriage?" (7:15-16)

Application:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Application:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.